

B.A. (Honours) Semester-II Examination 2017
Comparative Religion
Course : H-4
(Philosophy of Religion I)

Time : 3 Hours

Full Marks : 40

Questions are of value as indicated in the margin

Answer any four questions

1. Explain the 'doctrine of analogy' as proposed by St. Thomas Aquinas. 10
 2. Distinguish between sign and symbol after Paul Tillich. How does he employ them in solving the problem of theological meaning? 3+7=10
 3. Which doctrine involves the claim that the moral attributes of God have been embodied in a finite human life? Explain the same after Jhon H. Hick. 2+8=10
 4. Give a short account of the non-propositional view of revelation. 10
 5. Explain and examine Paul Tillich's conception of faith as the ultimate concern. 10
 6. Is religious language cognitive according to J.H. Randall? Give an account of the fourfold functions of religious symbols according to him. 2+8=10
-