

B.A.(Honours) Examination, 2015

Semester-VI

AIHC&A

Course – H.16

(Early India: Sources and Modes of Interpretations)

Time: 3 Hours

Full Marks: 40

Questions are of equal value.

Answer any three questions.

1. Define history. Explain its scope and objectives.
 2. Review the progress and methods of ethnographical studies in India.
 3. Critically evaluate the historical consciousness of and notions of the past in early Indian cultures.
 4. Discuss the significance of historiography indicating the new trends that have emerged in historical research of Modern India and how they differ from traditional historical writings.
 5. Discuss the significance of Epigraphical and Numismatic sources in writing the ancient Indian history.
 6. Discuss D.D. Kosambi's contributions in writing early Indian history.
-