- Farewell of Dr. V. K. Thomas: Dr. V. K. Thomas has retired from his service on 15 December 2016. He was given a warm send-off. The Visva-Bharati Library Network (VBLN) wishes him all the best in his post-service life. He had a clear vision of what to do, how to do, when to do. His ever silent appearance speaks a lot about his nature of 'less talk and more work'. Within the limited time and several constraints he had tried his best to reach almost all the corner of the VBLN for all wide development. VBLN will remember him in every step of future library services. Following his vision VBLN will try to carry library services beyond campus to comply with the legacy of founder Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore.
- Welcome to Prof. Nirmalya Banerjee: Prof. Nirmalya Banerjee has been assigned by the competent authority as Prof-in-Charge of the University Library and he has took over the charge on 15 December 2016 (Evening) from Dr. V. K. Thomas in presence of Registrar (Offg.), Visva-Bharati. VBLN welcomes to Prof. Nirmalya Banerjee as Prof-in-Charge of the University Library.
