

B.F.A.(Honours) Examination, 2016
Semester - III, V & VII
Course Code: AH-BFA 19
(Indian Architecture - Buddhist and Hindu)

Full Time - 2.30 hrs

Full Marks - 60

Questions are of equal value

Answer any three questions

1. Tell how the early Buddhist cave temples developed in India? Illustrate your answer with ground plans and elevation drawings wherever possible.
 2. How do you think the Hinayana and Mahayana caves came to be differentiated? Are there any indications of design changes? Give examples, if possible, illustrate.
 3. Can we say that early Hindu temples are basic and rudimentary and formed in the model of dwelling places? Give examples, illustrate wherever possible.
 4. Can we differentiate the early North Indian temples and Dravida temples of the early kind? Give examples.
 5. Can you discuss Ajanta as a site of architectural exploration, with special emphasis on its Mahayana phase?
 6. Write short notes on any two of the following:
 - a) Gupta temples
 - b) Chalukyan architecture
 - c) Osian
 - d) Stupa
-